

- B. What is actually doing the digesting? Identify two ruminant gut organisms from two different domains. For each give:
- The scientific name
 - The domain
 - In which chamber it is usually found?
 - Specific function in carbohydrate digestion
 - Resources used to get the above information and why that resource is reliable

You should be making a vocabulary list from both the text book section (Chapter 3) and the class notes. Flash cards would be even better.